KRISHNA CHANDRA DEY

THE UN-CROWNED KING OF THE LEGENDARY BENGALI SONGS

Sri KRISHNA CHANDRA DEY (BLIND SINGER)

[August 1893 - 28 November 1962]

By

Sushanta Kumar Chatterjee

The artists, who have attributed to the development of Bengali Culture in various streams, by their creative faculty, have now mostly passed into oblivion. It may be thought obligatory that, to the new generation, these men and women should be brought into the contemporary limelight.

The Blind Singer - Sri KRISHNA CHANDRA DEY - is one of the many such Vocal musical artist of Bengal. As a singer and actor, in both of these roles, and also as a music director, of the few artists who have left a deep and lasting impression in the heart of the Bengali people, K.C. Dey (Blind Singer) is the most venerable.

Krishna Chandra Dey saw the light of this world in August 1893 (Bengali: 9th Bhadra 1301) on the holy Janmastami Day (Birthday of Lord Krishna). To commemorate the auspicious birthday, the father Shib Chandra Day and the mother Ratnamala Devi, named the baby, Krishna.

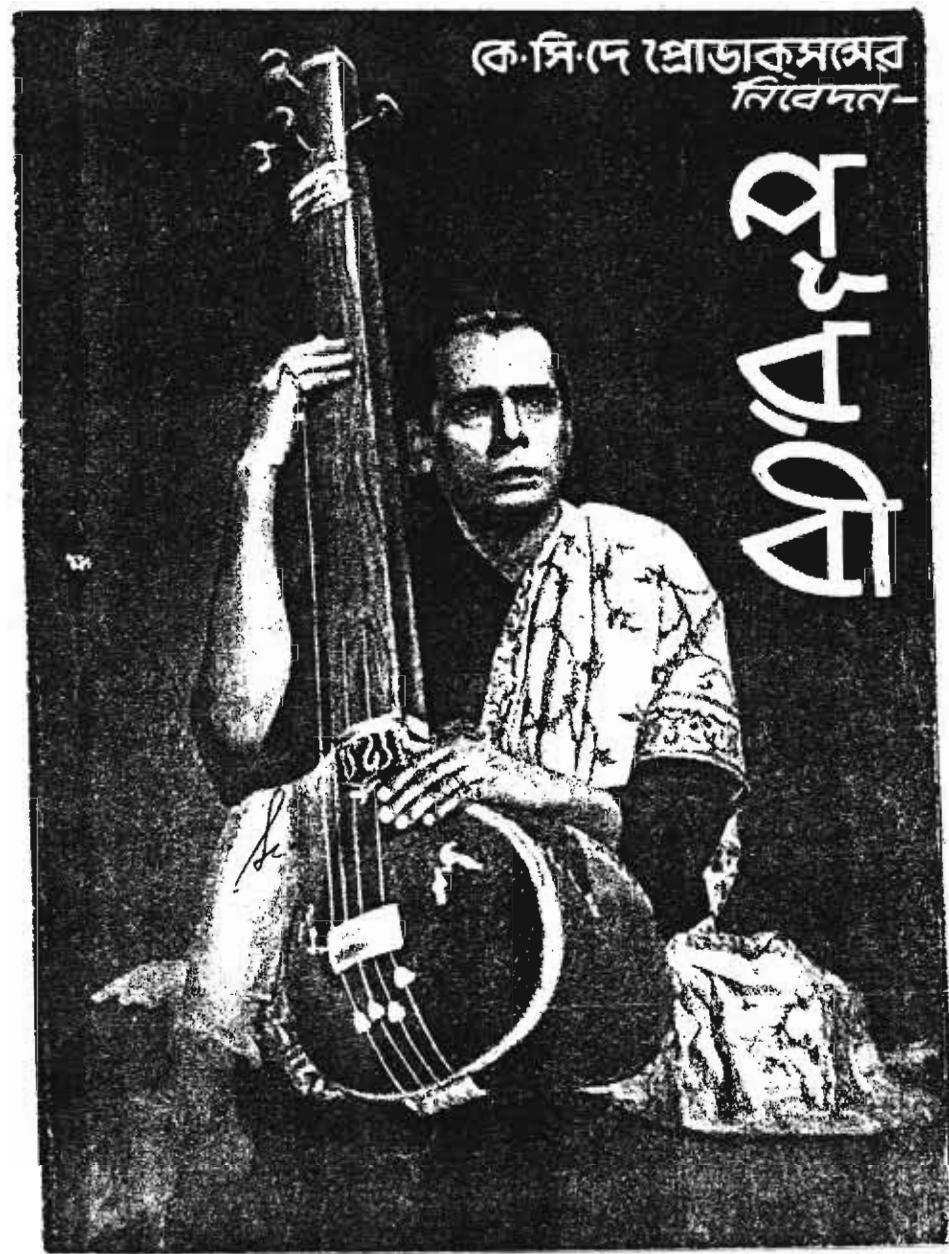

From the early childhood, young Krishna Chandra showed an affection towards music and could sing as well. He used to attend many musical gatherings in his youth. At the age of thirteen years (in 1906) he lost his eyesight after suffering from severe pain in the head. All medical treatments failed and he soon became blind. His love of music then found it's way through constant endeavour of vocal performances.

Eminent musicians such as Sashi Bushan Dey, Satish Chattopaddhya, Darshan Singh, Ustad Keramutulla Khan, Ustad Badal Khan, Amarnath Bhattacharya, Dabir Khan, Satish Dutta and Radha Raman Das, along with a galaxy of others all contributed to his musical training. From the musical gatherings at the famous Bengali wrestler Gobarbabu's house, he gradually started appearing before the public.

Krishna Chandra Dey's first music-master was Sashi Bhusan Chatterjee, and he was later trained in 'khayal' by Badal Khan; 'dhrupad' by Dani Babu; 'kirton' by Radha Raman Das, and in tabla-playing by Kanthey Maharaj of Benares.

In February 1917, he provided his first recordings for The Gramophone Co. Ltd., at their recording studios that were attached to their factory at 139 Beliaghatta Road, Sealdah, Calcutta.

Over the next few years his musical career appears to have been relatively uneventful, except that with good classical training his powerful yet melodious voice had been brought to maturity.

In 1923 he entered the world of Bengali theatre. Krishna Chandra Dey made his first professional appearance in Sisir Kumar Bhaduri's Natyamandir troupe, with the staging of Manilal Ganguli's "Basanta Leela" which opened at the Alfred Theatre (now Grace Cinema) on 23 March 1924. K.C. Dey appeared in the role of 'Basanta Doot' and his songs were a highlight of the playlet.

On 6 August 1924, Sisir Kumar Bhaduri presented his reformed company in the name of Monmohan Natyamandir, at the Monmohan Theatre in Beeson Street, with Jogesh Chandra Chaudhuri's mythological drama "Seeta", an event attended by several dignitaries of Calcutta. In this drama Krishna Chandra Dey played the role of 'Baitulik' and his singing created a sensation, particularly his song - "Ondhokarer Ontoreytey Asru Baadol Jhorey" - the popularity of which confirmed his stature as a 'Gramophone Celebrity'

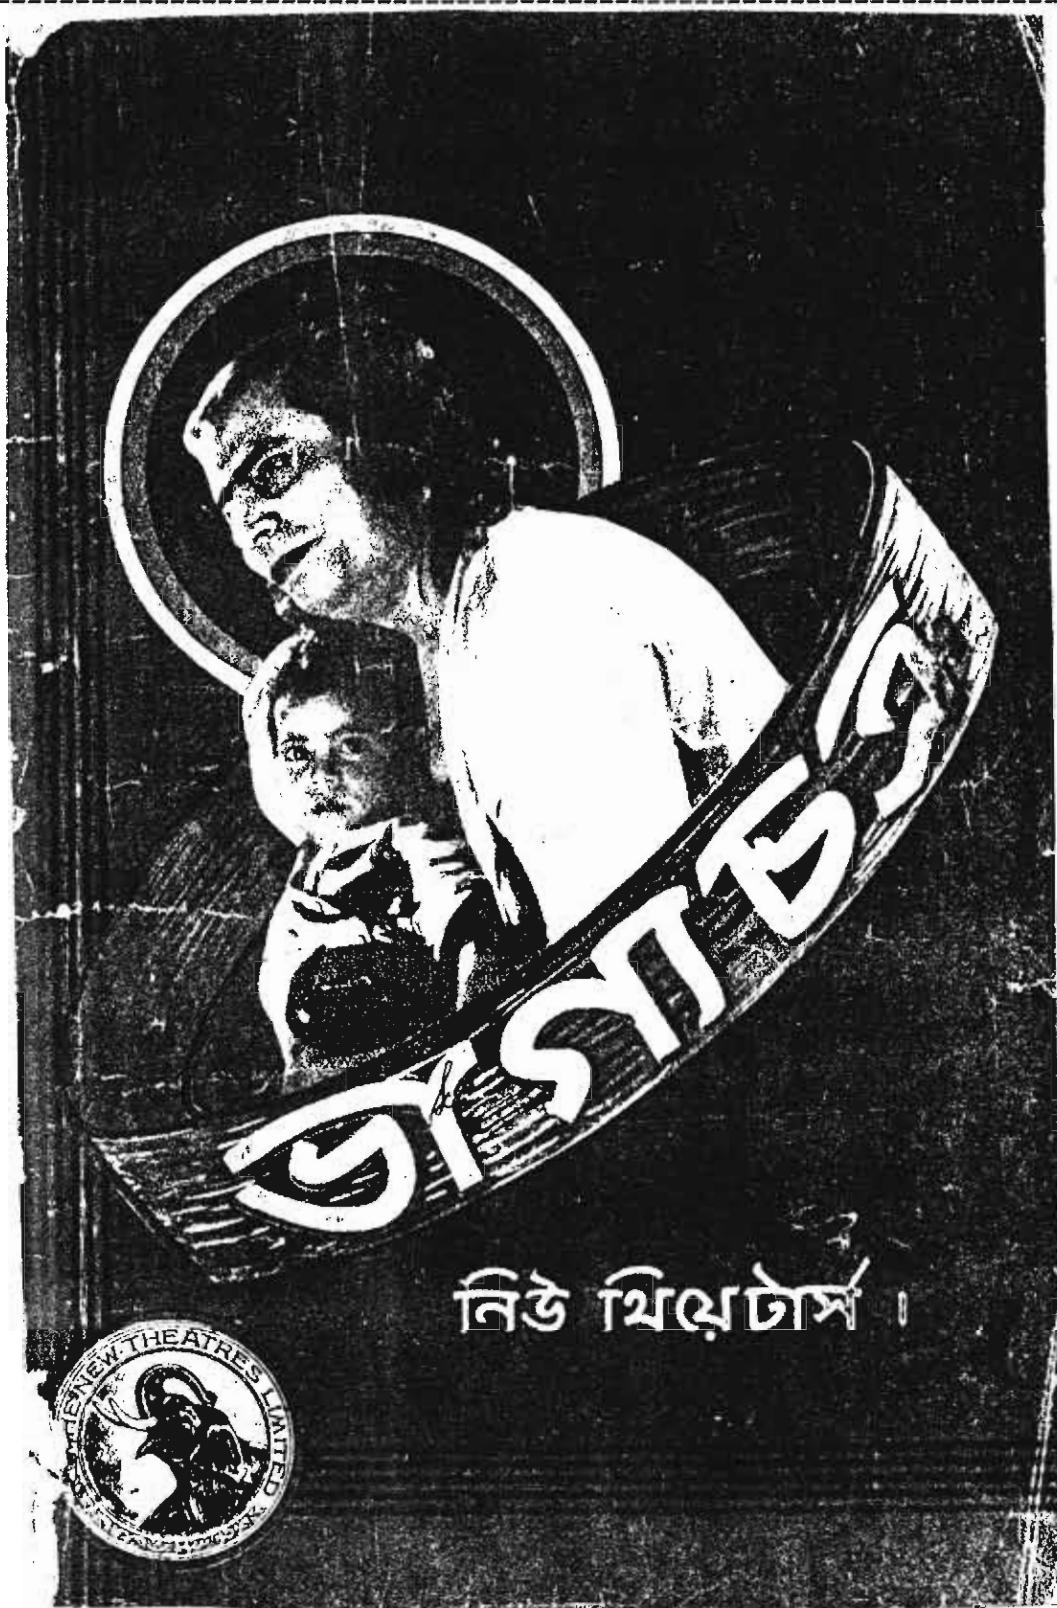

The success of Krishna Chandra Dey's performance in "Seeta" enthralled the theatre going public, with the drama celebrating it's centenary on 5 July 1925. Following "Seeta" - Krishna Chandra Dey was presented again in a repeat performance of "Basanta Leela" at the Monmohan Theatre, which opened on 20 August 1925. In 1926, Sisir Kumar Bhaduri reformed his drama company into Natyamandir Ltd., on the stage of the Cornwallis Theatre. On 26 June 1926, Krishna Chandra Dey was presented in the staging of Rabindra Nath Tagore's "Visarjan".

With growing success Krishna Chandra Dey performed in other presentations of dramas at the Star Theatre and the Minerva theatre. On 11 August 1928, the Minerva Theatre presented Jaladhar Chattopadhyaya's romantic play "Satyer Sandhan" in which Krishna Chandra Dey's songs were a great attraction. Other dramas presented by the Minerva Theatre in which Krishna Chandra Dey appeared were Sarat Chandra Ghose's "Sree" in 1929, and Jaladhar Chattopadhyaya's "Ranga Rakhi" presented in June 1930.

On 22 December 1928, Krishna Chandra Dey took part in Sarat Chandra Ghosh's drama "Jaatichyuta" in the role of 'Girinath' at Minerva Theatre. That a blind actor could perform such a difficult role, could only be visually experienced, and had amazed the audiences at the time.

Although Krishna Chandra Dey had achieved great success as a performer on the Bengali stage, and was well known for his renditions of Bengali songs. the attractive quality of his voice had reached far across India. The release of several Hindustani recordings by The Gramophone Co., Ltd., met with considerable popularity, and further strengthened his reputation as a great artist and 'Gramophone Celebrity'.

Krishna Chandra Dey and others used to perform dramas in different places in the name of Dipali Natya Sangha. Miss Tarakbala (alias Miss Light), then a famous and beautiful actress of Star Theatre and the Art Theatre, came into contact with K.C. Dey, for her songs, and also joined 'Dipali Natya Sangha'.

In 1931, Krishna Chandra Dey formed his own theatrical company, along with the well-known actor Rabindra Mohan Roy and some other associates, in the name of Rungmahal, on Cornwallis Street. Sisir Kumar Bhaduri, recently returned from the United States of America, was invited to play the lead role in Jogesh Chandra Chaudhuri's "Sri Sri Vishnu-Priya" which opened on 8 August 1931, with Krishna Chandra Dey in the role of 'Pagul' and as the music director. This drama was followed by several other plays in which Krishna Chandra Dey was featured, including, "Bejoyini" - "Ranger Khela" - "Sindhu Gaurab" - "Asabarna" - "Rajyyasri".

The Rungmahal theatre continued to operate under new management from 1933, and although Krishna Chandra Dey remained interested in the development of the Bengali theatre, he had already turned his creative and musical talent to the emerging 'motion picture' industry.

Krishna Chandra Dey had made his first appearance in a 'Talkie film' made by Madan Theatres, Calcutta, and released at the Crown Cinema, Calcutta, on 13 March 1931, (renamed 'Uttara' cinema in 1935) - featuring two songs being sung by K.C. Dey.

On 24 September 1932, the New Theatres, Ltd., production of the Bengali film "Chandidas" was released at the 'Chitra' cinema (now named 'Mitra') with Krishna Chandra Dey, in both acting and singing roles. The songs from "Chandidas" opened another chapter in the illustrious career of K.C. Dey, and confirmed him as one of the most popular entertainers of the time.

Between 1933 and 1935, Krishna Chandra Dey was in demand not only as an actor and singer, but also as a music director for motion pictures, being produced by East India Films; New Theatres, Ltd; both of Calcutta, and also Sagar Movietone, Bombay. The Gramophone Co., Ltd., were also not hesitant in retaining Krishna Chandra Dey, on their roster of celebrity artists, as he was one of the very few recording personalities that the company could market product to several areas of interest at the same time.

Krishna Chandra Dey, was appointed to the Advisory Committee of the All Bengal Music Conference of 1938-39, he also gave a performance of Dhrupad style singing in the presentation of 'Demonstrations by Musicians' held during the conference.

During the 1930's and 1940's, Krishna Chandra Dey directed the music for a number of Bengali drama's and performed in several other plays including "Parasar" - "Govindadas" - "Majhi" - "Nidhiram" - "Amarnath" - "Srinath" and "Anandaswami". Similarly his appearances in Bengali and Hindi motion pictures, both as an actor and singer, as well as undertaking the task of music director for several films, meant that his name was always at the fore-front of popular entertainment. Krishna Chandra Dey was one of the leading performers of the feature films produced by New Theatres, Ltd., and music director for a number of Bengali feature films produced by Kali Film Co., Calcutta.

In 1942, Krishna Chandra Dey re-located to Bombay where he performed the duties of music director, along with acting and singing roles. Since 1917, K.C. Dey had been a recording artist associated with The Gramophone Co., Ltd., and up to his move to Bombay, all of his recordings had been recorded and issued on 'HIS MASTER'S VOICE' - mostly in the prestigious P-10000 (Hindustani) and P-11500 (Bengali) series - usually with 'Red' label.

Although listed as Music Director for the films "Tammanna" and "Mera Gaon" (Laxmi Productions, Bombay) - K.C. Day acted and sang in both of these films and the recordings issued of songs from these films were released on the 'YOUNG INDIA' label - which was manufactured in Bombay by The National Gramophone Record Manufacturing Co., Ltd., of Wadala.

These disc records on 'YOUNG INDIA' represent the only issues in over twenty five years of his recording career that were not recorded and issued by The Gramophone Co., Ltd., although K.C. Dey also provided the music for several films produced in Bombay at this time, of which the songs were issued on 'HIS MASTER'S VOICE' - in the various N- series of 'Plum' label.

The recordings of Krishna Chandra Dey of traditional styles of song always achieved great popularity, in particular his renderings of 'Kirtan' along with Baul and Bhatiali songs. K.C. Dey also helped to popularize the 'thumri' - 'dadra' and 'gazal' sung in Bengali.

K.C. Dey's many recordings in Hindustani and Urdu were equally popular with the record buying public, and during the 1940's he also recorded some Gujarati songs, along with some 'modern' and 'Patriotic' songs in Hindi.

The Bengali songs, 'Chand Boley Kachey Eso' and 'Notun Raakhal Kon Surey Gao Gaan' - with Lyrics written by Kabi Hemendra Kumar Roy, set to music by K.C. Dey, was one of the very first examples of a Bengali song to be performed in European 'harmonized' fashion (HMV P-11791) in 1934.

The tunes of most of his recordings were composed by K.C. Dey himself, and the lyricists, of whom he sang the songs of, include the famous Bengali poets, such as Hemendra Kumar Roy, Sailen Roy, Ajoy Bhattacharya, Bani Kumar, Mohini Choudhury, Hemanta Gupta and Rabindra Nath Tagore, along with several others.

In 1947, the Bengali film "Purabi" was produced under the banner of K.C. Dey Productions, Calcutta. Krishna Chandra Dey performed as actor and singer, along with the duties of Producer. The Bengali films 'Anirban' and 'Dristi Dan' followed in 1948, and 'Banomer Meye' in 1949, under different production houses. In 1950, Krishna Chandra Dey, was music director for the Bengali film 'Kankantala Light Railway' and in 1957, he gave his last performance in the Bengali film 'Ektara' as a Guest Artist.

Krishna Chandra Dey is usually referred to as having been a confirmed bachelor, however, he is known to have been closely associated with Miss Tarakbala (Miss Light) and to have prepared the music for her recordings, a few of which were issued by The Gramophone Co., Ltd., on the "TWIN" record label, during the 1930's. Krishna Chandra Dey and Miss Tarakbala were married according to Hindu rites, in the presence of a Brahmin 'Purohit'. Reference - Bengali Film Magazine, 'PROSAD' - Pous 1380

After the marriage, Miss Tarakbala was renamed as Roma Dey, and was lovingly called 'Memsahib' by K.C. Dey. A son was born to the couple, but died at the age of 14 years. Krishna Chandra Dey gifted a house to Roma Dey in Mohendra Goswami Lane, Calcutta, and on his death-bed requested his relatives to see that Roma Dey was well cared for after his passing, however, it seems that after his death she led a solitary life in retirement, all alone.

Krishna Chandra Dey died on 28 November 1962, at 8.20 P.M. at the age of 69 years, at his home in Madan Ghosh Lane, Calcutta.

Additional notes -

1] K.C.Dey made his debut on radio with the opening of the Indian Broadcasting Co. which was set up on 26th August 1927 at Garstin's building at Calcutta. The Indian Broadcasting Co. was later taken over by the State Broadcasting Service and eventually became All India Radio in 1936, and K.C.Dey continued to have his songs broadcast live or from gramophone discs via this medium.

2] He had also set tunes to several songs which were sung and recorded by different artists in other recording companies like Hindustan Musical Products. K.C.Dey himself also provided at least one recording of a 'BAUL' song for Hindustan Musical Products and Varieties Syndicate Ltd. recorded at 6/1 Akrur Dutta Lane Calcutta.

3] The talented Manna Dey, a nephew of K.C.Dey is one of those to whom K.C.Dey had been instrumental in training.

Although Krishna Chandra Dey is remembered in the hearts and minds of all those who have had the pleasure of visualising his performances in Bengali dramas and films, his true legacy lies in the hundreds of recordings that he made over a career spanning more than over forty years, making him no doubt a 'CELEBRITY' artist, who will be remembered as one of the giants of Indian cultural heritage of the twentieth century.

And as a mark of tribute, the Calcutta Municipal Corporation has renamed a Calcutta Improvement Trust Road near New Alipore area as Krishna Chandra Dey Sarani.

NOTE:

Discography and other sections of this study of the life and work of K.C. Dey, researched, compiled and published by Sushanta Kumar Chatterjee, Calcutta, and Michael Kinnear, Melbourne. The authors would also like to acknowledge the assistance and co-operation of Suresh Chandvankar, Rajeev Goenka and Narendra 'Kamal' for some information contained in the discography.

It will be noted that the song titles of several recordings have not been given, despite appeals, through a number of channels that might have been able to supplement the information. This lack of complete detail mainly concerns a number of Hindustani recordings, for which catalogue sources have not been located.

In the interest of completeness, the authors appeal to any S.I.R.C. members or readers, to come forward with any further information.

This is the most exhaustive and complete discography of Indian music issued on microgroove discs and cassettes. It provides information on over 2,700 recordings of classical and semiclassical music of the Indian subcontinent, covering the period from the early 1950s to the end of 1983. It also contains information on recordings from the early 1930s onward that were originally issued at 78 RPM and have been reissued on microgroove discs.

The main text of the discography is divided into five sections: Hindustani Instrumental, Hindustani Vocal, Karnatic Instrumental, Karnatic Vocal, and Anthologies. Artists are listed alphabetically and brief biographical information is provided where possible. The recordings are indexed by Raga and Tala (the melody and the rhythm), thus allowing comparison between different recordings of the same piece. An instrumental index is included as are indexes to several styles of vocal performance.

Discographies

1241. Kinnear, Michael S., comp. A Discography of Hindustani and Karnatic Music. Westport, Conn., Greenwood Press, 1985. 594p. index. (Discographies, No. 17). $65.00. LC 85-5584. ISBN 0-313-24479-0.

Indian music is one of the oldest musics in the world and has delighted music lovers for centuries. In spite of its contributions to world music, there was no major discography of Hindustani and Karnatic music until recently when Michael S. Kinnear, a consultant to the music/video industry and a discography researcher in Australia, published the much-needed A Discography of Hindustani and Karnatic Music.

The discography includes over twenty-seven hundred recordings of classical and semiclassical music of India, Bangladesh, and Pakistan covering the period from 1950-1983. In addition, recordings, originally issued at 78 rpm since 1898 and reissued on microgroove discs have also been included. There are five sections in the discography: "Hindustani Instrumental," "Hindustani Vocal," "Karnatic Instrumental," "Karnatic Vocal," and "Anthologies." Each section includes an alphabetical listing of artists with brief biography. All records on long play, extended play discs, and cassettes are listed in the discography. Even lesser-known artists and their music have been included in chronological order of release. Each entry lists the title of the original release, the disc or cassette label, the catalog number, and the country and year of release where known. In the vocal section, name of the raga, type of song style, and name of the song have also been given. Even a brief history of the Indian recording companies is included. All recordings have been indexed by raga (the melody) and tala (the rhythm). There are eight indexes to several styles of vocal and instrumental music to help the researcher find the valuable information. It must be pointed out that popular and film soundtrack music recordings have not been included.

It is an excellent discography and the compiler has certainly filled a major gap in the literature. The book will help not only musicians, students, and researchers but also record dealers, teachers of Indian music, librarians, archivists, and other interested music lovers. This discography is a most valuable contribution to the literature and world of music in the eighties. It is recommended for all types of libraries with an interest in the music of Indian subcontinent.

THE GRAMOPHONE COMPANY'S FIRST INDIAN RECORDINGS

1899 - 1908

Compiled by MICHAEL S. KINNEAR

This painstakingly researched, unique volume is a definitive history of The Gramophone Company, an institution, whose contribution to Indian musical culture has uncontestedly been monumental. The author has provided the history of The Gramophone Company, in India, and its successor companies, the recording expeditions it undertook in the country during the first decade of the 20th Century, during which time the commercial disc records were reproduced at Hanover, Germany, and then to the transference of the master discs from Hanover to Calcutta, and the opening of the disc record pressing plant at Sealdah, in central Calcutta, and the continuance of disc record pressing in India.

This historical background is supplemented by a complete discographical listing of all known recordings taken in India on the recording expeditions between 1902 and 1907, along with detailed information about repressings and transfers of the recordings.

With a foreword by Frank Andrews, a detailed bibliography, general index of recording artistes, this book is a most valuable contribution to the writings on India's musical history. pp 285.                    1994

AN APPEAL

Dear Sir,

'Society of Indian Record Collectors' (SIRC) is seven years old now. You have witnessed it growing from very beginning. At present we have units at Solapur, Nanded, Pune, Tuljapur and Goa. Monthly listening sessions are held at these units and the response is encouraging. We also publish quarterly journal - 'THE RECORD NEWS' with twenty-four volumes released so far. We have about one hundred Indian and fifty overseas members.

Managing committee of SIRC is now seriously considering the possibility of creating a common depository for old gramophone records, gramophones, catalogues, books etc. Such a collection may eventually lead to a sound archive and will be useful for the generations to come in many ways. The proposed depository will be created near Mumbai or Pune.

To realise this dream, we need large amount of funds and the dedicated persons to help us in this venture. A rough estimate of about five lakh Indian rupees (about half million rupees) is worked out. This includes initial funds required for a common place / building etc. with required facilities.

I herewith request you to consider this proposal and send me your valuable comments, suggestions along with donations for this purpose. The cheque/DD should be drawn in the name of 'SOCIETY OF INDIAN RECORD COLLECTORS'.

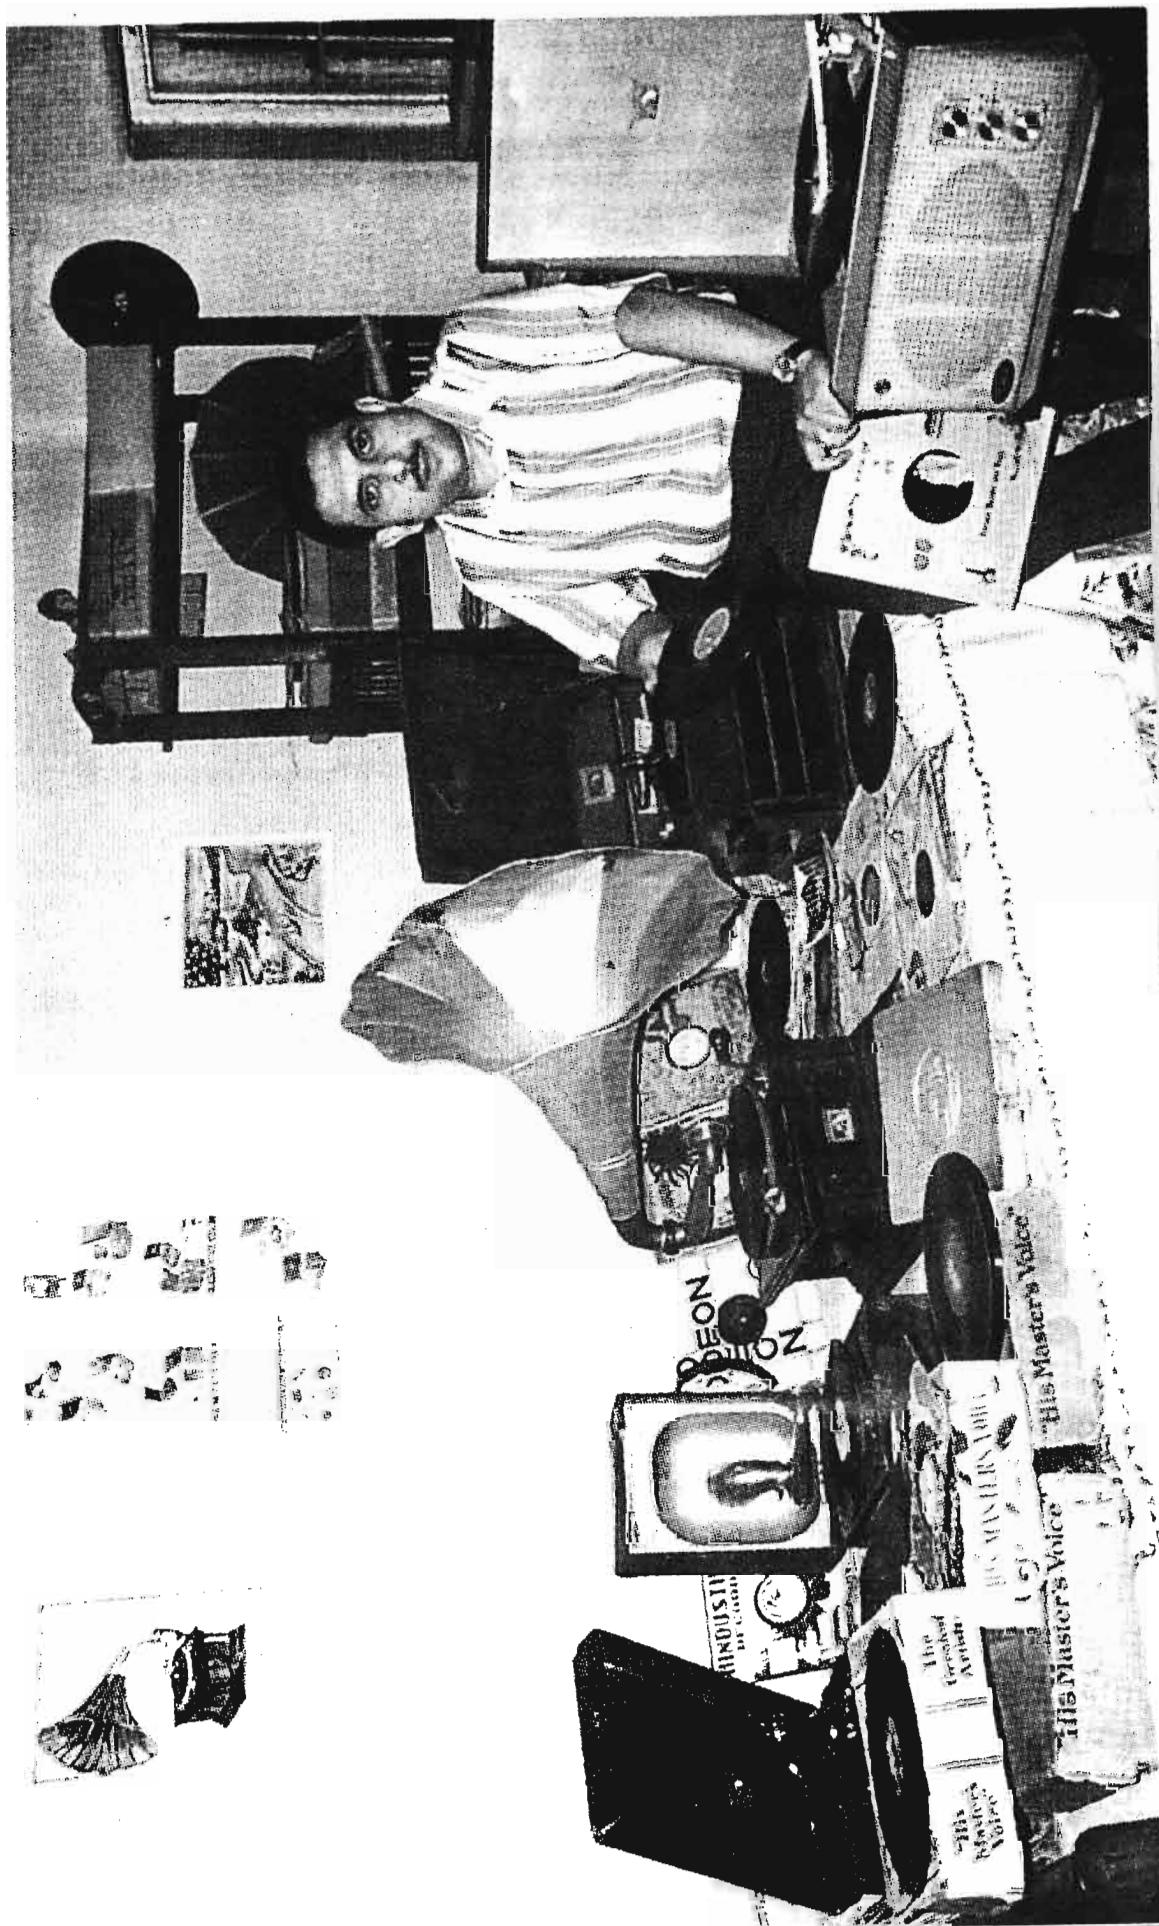

As you are a record collector/music lover, you will appreciate the need for such archive better. Please send me the names and addresses of the interested persons whom this appeal should be sent. I hope that with our collective efforts we shall establish such archive and fulfil our dream soon.

APRIL 1997

Yours Sincerely,

S.S. Chandvankar

THE RECORD COLLECTOR

MR.S.K.CHATTERJEE,CALCUTTA

I am Sushanta Kumar Chatterjee,born 9th February 1949 at Razabazar,Calcutta. I am just a family man,doing service and having a HEART-FELT-LOVE for antique materials and collecting records,talking machines etc.as far as my pocket permits. Tunes haunt me,Record Artists speak out for remembrance and the gramophones call out nostalgic memories. I do not know whether all these have made me a lover of music and in turn a record collector. To me,all gramophone records - especially 78's - are living beings,having history of origin and untold story of life. They have come through till reaching my shelter. And so,for records I try to -

" PROCURE THE PAST,PAY A LITTLE CARE
IN THIS SPEEDY AGE,WHERE 'FEELINGS' IS SO RARE "

I am the eldest son of Late Mukundolal Chatterjee and Smt.Mira Devi from Calcutta. My grandfather Dr.Monnatha Nath Chatterjee (Prof.M.N.Chatterjee) was Gramophone Record artist of BEENA and his recordings were taken during second recording expedition. [Many Many thanks to Mr.Michael Kinnear-discographer from Australia,for his great research work and book - in absence of which this history would have remained unknown to our family. Also I express my sincere thanks to SIRC and especially to Mr.Candvankar for introducing me to Mr.Kinnear].Prof.M.N.Chatterjee was an eminent eye specialist and general physician who bequeathed a major portion of his property for the materialisation of a charitable eye hospital at his residence at Razabazar,Calcutta. This hospital is functioning since 1954 in the name of Dr.M.N.Chatterjee eye hospital.

I am a commerce graduate B.Com.(Hons.) from Calcutta University and working with Calcutta Electric supply Company Limited (CESC Ltd.) since 1968 as Assistant Chief Meter Inspector. In my childhood,since the age of ten years I used to play gramophone records for my parents,especially for my father who had a fine taste for everything. It all began in eighties when I was looking for one Hemant Kumar record and found after great trouble in a old shop in central Calcutta. Most of my collection is bought from old shops and from different houses where people just wanted to get rid of the records from their houses.

In my collection besides records I have large number of gramophone models,needle tins,catalogues,booklets of film songs and dramaset,special label records and photographs of old artists. In the collection of over 6000 records I have the records of all the major recording companies including Pathe,Beka,Nicole,HMV,Odeon,Columbia,Megaphone,Hindustan,Senola Jay Bharat,Bharati,Kalinga,Ashoka,Regal,Broadcast and so on. These records size varies from 2.2"-12" in diameter.

In my collection of 78's - I have both vocal and instrumental music, film songs, skits, plays, speeches. Although most of these are in Bengali, I have also few LP/EP and SP's of western music. The songs include mainly Bengali Tagore songs, Nazrul Geeti, Modern, Rural, folk, duets, Military bands etc. The voices include Dr. Rabindranath Tagore, Kazi Nazrul, Kabi Atul Prosad Sen, D.L. Roy, Mahatma Gandhi, Sarojini Naidu, Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose (Young India Label), Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru (Hindustan Label), Mohananda Brahmochari, organ played by The Mother of Pondichery, Swamy Abhudananda of Ramkrishna Mission, Dr. Rajendra Prosad (Hindustan Label) etc. I also have the voices of George Bernard Shaw, D.D. Eisenhower and Richard Nixon. One record contains the lecture given by the king in round table conference.

I have had the opportunity to meet gramophone record celebrity Mr. Satya Chowdhury. I also met Mr. Biman Mukherjee—the eminent Nazrul Geeti trainer of HMV, Hindustan, Inreco and who is referred as 'Great Bhandar' of old Bengali songs. He had been in close association with a host of Bengali artists.

My ambition is to create a gramophones/records library of my own for future listeners, researchers and music lovers. I also want to write on my findings about artists, record lists etc. So far I have compiled the life sketch and 400 songs of Bengali lyricist Ajoy Bhattacharya. Life sketch and discography of Late K.C. Dey has been published in this issue with the collaboration and assistance of Mr. M.S. Kinnear, Australia. I am also working on the life and records made by H. Bose of H. Bose records, record list of Prof. Jnanendra Prosad Goswami, Tagore songs in films (about 230 films) I was invited by All India Radio, Calcutta for ten programmes based on the records from my collection. About 200 songs have been broadcast from FM channel of AIR Calcutta so far and many more programmes are being planned.

Thus through the record collection -

"My thoughts are with the Dead,
With them, I live in long past years
My hopes are with the Dead,
And with them, I will travel on Through all Futurity."

For all these, I remain most grateful to Mr. Profulla Kumar Ganguly for his kind guidance, encouragement and my beloved wife Sraboni and dear daughter Arundhoti without whose sacrifice, hardship and love of music, it would have been all just next to impossible.

At the end, most humbly, I would like to thank you all for the efforts that have been taken and are being taken through IRC.
